

South Carolina Regional Transmission Planning

(SCRTP)

Stakeholder Meeting

March 16, 2016

10:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Web Conference

The Attendees List is attached.

The purpose of this meeting was to review and select economic transfer sensitivities to be studied, review the FERC Order 1000 regional planning process, and to discuss multi-party studies.

The welcome and introduction were made by Clay Young from SCE&G and Chris Wagner from Santee Cooper.

A review of the previous SCRTP economic transmission planning studies was presented by Jeff Neal from SCE&G. Jeff Neal then led the discussion of 8 proposed economic transfer sensitivities. The discussion combined and reduced the proposed sensitivities to 5 sensitivities which were selected by the SCRTP stakeholders for study.

Clay Young presented an update of the FERC Order 1000 regional planning process which has been updated to ensure compliance with the order and includes public policy features.

Wade Richards, from SCE&G, presented results of an intertie study between SCE&G and Southern Company. In addition, Mr. Richards presented SCE&G's major near-term transmission plans and reviewed the results of recent reliability SCE&G planning studies and potential SCE&G transmission plan changes.

Chris Wagner made closing comments and the meeting was adjourned by Clay Young at 11:00 AM.
